FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

5th Annual Cuisine for A Cure progressive dinner At the Shops at Legacy Plano, in support of community wellness, will be held Sunday, March 2, 2014.

Plano, TX (January 22, 2014)—The 5th annual fundraising event, Cuisine for A Cure, supports Health Services of North Texas' (HSNT) Plano clinic's efforts to deliver compassionate high quality care regardless of a person's ability to pay.

This year's Mardi Gras theme sets the scene for this unique progressive dinner (fundraiser) with food, beverage and entertainment and other services donated by the Shops at Legacy Plano restaurants and retail shops.

Tickets are available to the public though the event is limited to 115 people. Already committed as attendees include Frisco Mayor Maso, City Council Members from Frisco and other Collin County cities. Space is still available and tickets are only $125.

Health Services of North Texas is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit dedicated to improving the life of all North Texans through medical care, support services and advocacy.

Major sponsors include Walgreen's, Kroger, the ORIX Foundation and the various restaurants and retail shops at the Shops at Legacy. Honorary event Co-Chairs are Christine Messner and Suzanne Carroll Mitchell.

For more information about HSNT, the event or tickets please contact Larry Bisno, Development Director at (940) 381- 1501 (ext 3002) or at Lbisno@healthntx.org.
